Description

GetBoarded is a personality focused platform for Talent Management. It predicts and provides future career opportunities for students using AI and Predictive talent analytics.

On Surveying University students on how confidently they knew what they are going to do? Just 16% had a 100% clarity. Students are more confused, opportunistic and driven by chance than ever before. Universities face challenges to keep up with the changing trends and industry demand. Talent management tools are missing to guide at last stage of student-market fit.

3 out of 5 Companies face HR challenges with recruiting and retention. With 8 of 10 roles being filled with a less than 100% fitment. We provide custom Talent Management solutions & Hiring Innovations driven with data, research and reasonable predictions.
