

INEGI - Institute of Innovation in Mech Eng

Bilateral Meetings

- Friday 14:00-16:00

Description

INEGI is a Research and Technology Organization (RTO), bridging the University - Industry gap and focused on applied Research and Development, Innovation and Technology Transfer activities for the industry. It was founded in 1986, from the Faculty of Engineering of the University of Porto (FEUP). It is a non-profit private association, and it is recognised as of public service. It benefits from its own team of >250 coworkers, which makes INEGI a dynamic entity working in the development and consolidation of a business model offering scientific knowledge, technologically based innovation and added-value technological content to products and manufacturing processes.
